

GERMANS CLAIM CAPTURE OF FRENCH FORT

CAMP DES ROMAINS, TAKEN AFTER HARD FIGHT, SAYS BERLIN

(By Associated Press.)

BERLIN, Oct. 6.—(By Wireless to Sayville, L. I.)—An order of the day written by General Von Hoehen, published officially today, says that Fort Camp des Romains, on the river Meuse near St. Hihel, after a number of hard fights has been taken by the Germans. Fifty prisoners were taken, and between 300 and 500 men were made prisoners. The remainder of the French force perished in the ruins of the casemates.

It is officially stated that the Russians were completely defeated near Suwalki and Krasnowo, on the East Russian frontier, October 1 and 2. The Germans took 3,000 prisoners and captured eighteen cannon and many machine guns.

The situation, it is announced, is hopeful everywhere for the Germans and Austrians.

An official statement issued today at Vienna says the situation in Russian Poland and Galicia is favorable, according to a Reuter dispatch from Vienna.

"The combined German and Austrian armies," it is officially announced, "have forced the enemy from Opotow and Klimontow toward the River Carpatis."

In the Carpathian mountains the Russians have been completely beaten back at Uzsoz Pass."

Between Poiana and Aknog, the Hungarian dispatch says, Russians again attempted unsuccessfully to break through the allied German lines. The Austrian and German troops hotly pursued the retreating Russians and captured many prisoners.

BAD BLOOD

Hatred of the Nations for One Another

This European war was born of the hatred caused by earlier warfare, but it will engender other wars between the same nations in the future. The same war which will carry this hatred in their blood to bloodier wars, will cause the spark is touched by Kings or Statesmen who are yet in infancy.

It is bad blood that makes your liver sluggish, and the same bad blood causes your stomach muscles to lose their elasticity and become flabby and weak and that makes you feel tired.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics, is not a secret remedy for all the ills mentioned are printed on wrapper.

Take it as directed and it will search out impure and poisonous matter in the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys and drive it from the system through the natural channels. It will clear the skin, cleanse the joints and muscles, and dissolve the poisonous accumulations. It will replace all the blood it drives out, and thus give you blood full of vital force. It will furnish you with the kind of blood that increases energy and ambition, that puts the entire body in such perfect physical condition that brain or muscles know no fatigue.

THE PROSPECT FOR THE FRONTIER MAY MARK THE END OF THE WAR

If Germans Win They Will Rush Troops to France—If They Lose Advantage Lies With Allies

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—So far as London is concerned, the past twelve hours have been a continuation of war. When the British lifted the veil of strategic tidings of great moment and there is a distinct tendency to optimism regarding the nature of the conflict.

The French ministry of war, explaining the necessity for the official communique, stated that the battle in the valleys of the Aisne and the Somme are not finished. The authorities know the conflict will be tedious and protracted, but a decision is not expected.

Even the small relief afforded by news of great activity in the east sent yesterday had ceased today and the iron enclosures of the trench warfare had extended to the region where, throughout the past week, the British and Belgians have been more accessible than in the west.

GREAT BATTLE NEEDED
Victory for one side or the other is needed to break the deadlock of the trench warfare. The importance and the tremendous battle which is being fought in the west, according to the war.

Experts are beginning to appreciate the fact that attacks now being made on either flank of the western front are not entirely turning movements which depend for their effectiveness on the rapidity of the offensive. The evidence of either has been shown on the other side. If, however, the Russians were to win the battle in the east, the Germans to divert some of their western armies to the aid of the Russian front.

KAISER FIRES CHIEF OF GENERAL VOLKKE FOR NOT ATTACKING ENGLAND

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Lieutenant General Helmuth von Moltke, chief of the German general staff, has been removed from that office by the emperor, according to a report received here.

An Amsterdam dispatch to the Daily Call says that "the dismissal of General von Moltke was due to a collision with the emperor over several important questions of strategy."

Continuing, the dispatch says, the emperor wished to subordinate sound strategy to a desire to attack England, but General von Moltke preferred to postpone the latter action as it would have no effect on the immediate situation.

The emperor, adds the dispatch, wished to detach a large number of airplanes and aeroplanes to attack England, but General von Moltke declared all available air craft were needed in Europe.

It's a Long Way to Tipperary, Battle Song of British

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The route to Tipperary is devoid of any strategic importance, but it is playing no mean part in upholding what military experts term the morale of the British troops. The Germans thunder "Die Wacht am Rhein," the French chant the "Marseillaise," the Belgians sing the "Brabançonne" and the British sing the "It's a Long Way to Tipperary."

U. S. OFFICIALS MUST NOT STATE WHERE DANGER LIES

Changed Posts When Fighting Gets Close

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—State department officials have decided to take no chances on losing any of their agents by passing out information to the press regarding the danger zone of any European battle. Instructions issued at the beginning of the war left the discretion of the diplomatic agents. Those, however, have now been modified, and wherever there is a possibility of danger, the officers have been requested to temporarily change their posts.

Orders to this effect were sent today to Consul Peck at Tientsin, China, and to Consul Peck at Tientsin, China, and to Consul Peck at Tientsin, China.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad blood—that is, blood that is impure, impoverished, thin and pale—is responsible for many ailments and for the most common of diseases.

It affects every organ and function in some cases it causes catarrh; in others it causes skin diseases; in still others, it makes the blood thin and weak, and causes the blood to be run down, and it is the most common cause of disease.

U. S. SOLDIER WOUNDED BY MEXICAN BULLET

Shot Came From Trenches Occupied by Troops Defending Naco, Sonora

(By Associated Press.)
NACO, Ariz., Oct. 6.—Private Leroy Bradford of troop G, Tenth U. S. cavalry border patrol, was struck in the breast today by a bullet fired from trenches occupied by troops of General Benjamin Hill, defending Naco, Sonora, from the attacks of Governor Maytorena.

Bradford was in a trench dug for the protection of the American troops on the border line. His wound is said to be serious.

Private Wilson of troop G, was hit by a stray bullet Sunday night. A boy was hit in the hand by a stray bullet yesterday. Two cavalry horses also have been shot. United States army officers reported that their men have been subjected to Mexican fire every time they stood up in their observation trenches, 200 yards north of the boundary. Captain Holcomb, commanding troop B, Tenth cavalry, said a machine gun was turned on his men yesterday. He himself was the target for five Mexican bullets as he was riding back to camp last night.

At midnight Colonel Guilleme, commanding the American troops, notified General Hill he personally would be held responsible if more Mexican bullets were fired into American territory. Hill said his men were the penalty for those who fired across the boundary. Maytorena sent emissaries to Hill last night with a proposition said to have been inspired by General Villa that an armistice be declared pending the Aguas Calientes peace conference. Hill declined to answer, and Maytorena's Yaqui Indians advanced for an attack but retreated under heavy fire.

Reforms Proposed by Carranza for Mexico

(By Associated Press.)
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 6.—President Carranza proposed the following reforms for Mexico, in a statement which he submitted last week, when offering his resignation to the constitutional congress and governors of the states of Mexico:

Insurance of municipal liberty; division of national lands and of lands which the government may acquire from large holders; expropriation of lands in the vicinity of municipalities of 50 population or more, the proceeds to be used in erecting schools, markets and public houses, obligating the landowners to pay weekly, and in each, all their employees; limitation of hours of labor and of Sunday workmen compensation laws for insurance; tax on land and tariff laws intended to help the poorer classes; improvement of necessities such as the country does not cultivate and reformation of banking laws to permit the establishment of state banks.

He also proposes giving the marriage contract a civil character, at the same time taking away all undue intervention of state officials; establishment of absolute divorce laws when both parties consent, and the general betterment of the working classes.

NEW COOKING OIL IS PRODUCT OF COTTON

"Cotton Bloom," Now on Market, Made Entirely of Seed Oil

A use to which cotton products may be put with a resultant demand on the market, was forcibly illustrated Tuesday by a new brand of cooking oil put on sale by the Atlanta Refining and Manufacturing company, of this city. The brand is labeled "Cotton Bloom" and is made entirely from cotton seed oil. Its manufacturers claim that it is equally good, if not better, than cooking oil made with kerosene of which "Cotton Bloom" contains none. The company has constructed a new plant and intends to manufacture considerable quantities of the brand, using Georgia cotton seed oil for the purpose. Many Atlanta grocery stores Tuesday carried the new output.

THIEF VISITS HOME OF RECORDER PRO TEM

The thief was a man of about 40 years of age, of medium build, with dark hair, and a mustache. He was wearing a dark suit and a light-colored shirt. He was seen by a neighbor who called the police.

BALE SENT FROM ATLANTA TO BANK IN LYNCHBURG, VA.

This is a picture of a bale of cotton bought in Atlanta by Colonel Robert J. Long, president of the Loyal National bank, and sent by him to the Peoples National bank, Lynchburg, where it is now on display in the lobby of that bank, with a sign saying: "Buy a bale of cotton. We have bought a bale of cotton from the bank which has been very active in its support of the buy-a-bale movement in Lynchburg."

2,100 BALES TAKEN OFF MARKET TODAY BY THREE FIRMS

manager of the company, announces the company's proposition as follows: "We have more than 2,000 customers, druggists and merchants, who sell to farmers, and a large per cent of them are farmers themselves, selling Hilsch's liver, kidney and blood purifier, and baby liver medicine in Georgia and Alabama. We will take one bale of cotton from each of our customers at 10 cents a pound in exchange for these two remedies, or the $20 purchase may be made up from any of the line of remedies that we manufacture, and when any of our customers are now owing us as much as $20, we will accept a bale of cotton in settlement of the account. We are willing to hold these 2,000 bales of cotton off the market for one year, or until we can sell for 10 cents. To further help the movement we would like to have every bale of cotton that we buy packed in cotton burlap. If this were used in place of jute, it will help to create an additional market for a large quantity of cotton."

Mr. Conner states that his company sells a large portion of its remedies to merchants in small towns and in the country who have taken cotton from their farmer customers at 10 cents a pound, and therefore he believes his proposition will enable these merchants to dispose of some of this cotton without a loss.

SECRET ORDERS BUY

Two more secret orders have joined the buy-a-bale movement. Occulture Tribe No. 124, Improved Order of Red Men, of Lanett, Ala., has bought one bale at 10 cents a pound; and Jackson Council No. 102, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of Milledgeville, Ga., has bought a bale at 10 cents. They will hold the cotton until the price goes to 10 cents.

SMITH PREPARES SECOND CARD IN THE FRANK CASE

Appeal to Set Aside Verdict Will Be Heard on October 26

The last appeal in the case of Leo M. Frank, the action to set aside the verdict on the ground that the defendant was not in court at the time it was rendered, will be heard by the supreme court of Georgia, October 26.

The case has been pending some time and is almost certain to be heard then. It is generally expected that the high court's decision on the extraordinary motion, which was argued during August, will not be handed down until after the technical motion to set aside has also been heard, and it is possible that decisions on both motions in the case may be returned at the same time. However, it is also possible that the court may hand down the decision on the extraordinary motion at any time.

Solicitor H. M. Dorney and the city detective, although the former will not make any statement for publication, have been showing an active interest in the Frank case again since the statement of William M. Smith, former counsel for Jim Conley, that he believes his client guilty of the crime for which Frank has been sentenced to death.

Mr. Smith Tuesday refused to make an additional statement and admitted that he is preparing another card to demonstrate the reason for his change of theory.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT DANDERINE.

Girls! Girls! Save your hair! Make it grow luxuriant and beautiful

If you care for heavy hair, that glitters with beauty and is radiant as life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you can not have nice, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots furnish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lose it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually why not now?—(Adv.)

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa. "From a small child my 12 year old daughter had female weakness. I took her to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. Martha Helvig, Plover, Iowa.

Handfuls of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

He Will Report Great Convention for Journal

THE REV. DR. EDW. ARD B. BAGBY.

Pastor and Newspaper Writer Will Keep Atlantians Posted on Disciples of Christ Meeting

The international convention of the Disciples of Christ, which begins in Atlanta Wednesday, with 15,000 delegates present, lasting through Wednesday, will be presented to Journal readers in its most important phases by Rev. Dr. Edw. Ard B. Bagby, pastor of the Twenty-fifth street Christian church, of Baltimore, and convention representative of the Christian Reformed, the brotherhood's official publication.

Dr. Bagby will interpret the convention each day on the Journal. He will not only discuss the more important features, but will introduce personal letters or interviews with the delegates and will discuss from an interpretative standpoint the plans and progress of the convention. His articles will not only be invaluable to all delegates who wish to remain a full and accurate account of the convention, but should prove interesting and instructive reading for every citizen who is interested in the march of events.

Dr. Bagby is well qualified to undertake this work. He is a native Virginian, a graduate of Transylvania university, Kentucky, and of the Yale divinity school. For sixteen years he was pastor of the Ninth street Christian church, of Washington, D. C., building it up from a small mission to a congregation numbering 1,000. He was chairman of the Democratic's congress of 1892 and is at present pastor of the Twenty-fifth street church, of Baltimore.

His articles will not only be invaluable to all delegates who wish to remain a full and accurate account of the convention, but should prove interesting and instructive reading for every citizen who is interested in the march of events.

It is evident that both from the standpoint of newspaper ability and familiarity with the church and its conventions, Dr. Bagby's articles will be timely, far-reaching and couched in smooth and forceful language.

His first contribution will appear Wednesday.

CONVENTION NOTES
 Word has been sent to the critical illness of E. L. Powell, pastor of the First Christian church, Louisville, Ky., who was announced to preach the convention sermon on Sunday morning. The absence of Dr. Powell will be a loss to the convention people and will deprive the Atlanta public of hearing one of the most brilliant orators among the disciples.

The publishing house has installed their booths with samples of their publications. Roy Siffer, Charles Forsythe and others are on hand.

RESERVE BANK DIRECTORS CALLED TO WASHINGTON

Meeting Next Tuesday Will Discuss Opening of Bank in Atlanta

Edward T. Brown and the other two class C directors of the federal reserve bank of Atlanta were notified by telegram Tuesday to be in Washington Wednesday for a conference with the federal reserve board. At this conference steps will be taken to open the Atlanta bank. All the other class C directors have already conferred with the board, and it is the plan now to have the banks of the system open simultaneously throughout the country. When the banks will be opened Mr. Brown could not say, but he did say that the board had been working night and day to get everything in shape. "As a matter of fact," said Mr. Brown, "the federal reserve board has had its offices in the treasury department and been hard at work ever since it was appointed. I want to emphasize this because I doubt whether the public has any idea of the immense amount of work that is involved in the launching of the system."

It must be remembered that this is an entirely new financial system involving the most important country in the world, and it can't be launched in a day. "It is now the plan of the board to start all the banks at the same time. When this will be has not yet been determined. All rumors as to a definite date are without foundation."

The same is true in connection with the location and other organization details.

Several locations have already been submitted to the board of directors at the Atlanta bank, but none of these has been acted on as yet. As the bank will

JUSTICE WRIGHT QUILTS BENCH UNDER FIRE

District of Columbia Jurist, Facing Impeachment Charge, Tenders Resignation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Associate Justice Daniel Thew Wright, of the District of Columbia, against whom impeachment charges are pending before the house judiciary committee, today sent his resignation to President Wilson, to take effect November 15.

The charges, filed by a Washington banker, alleged official and personal misconduct. Justice Wright attracted attention by sentencing Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders to jail for contempt of court.

BOND COMMITTEE WILL DISCUSS NEW BOND ISSUE

The movement to hold a bond election to secure money needed for necessary improvements in the growing departments of the city government was formally launched in council Monday afternoon when Chairman W. C. Humphrey, of the finance committee, requested the mayor pro tem, Judge John S. Candler, to call together the special bond committee of council.

Judge Candler stated he would call the committee immediately after the next meeting of council, when the October budget will be passed.

The special committee on bonds was created some months ago by a resolution of the council, which was passed by Councilman Orville Hall, but has not yet held a meeting.

There are no dealings with the public, it is not necessary for it to have a central location, as long as it can get vital space.

CLAYTON ANTI-TRUST BILL IS READY FOR THE HOUSE

Conference Report on Last Trust Measure May Be Acted on Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The conference report on the Clayton anti-trust bill today awaited favorable action by the house to make it a law. The report was agreed to by the senate yesterday. Prompt action is expected, although Representative Henry's filibuster for color reform legislation at this session, now blocking disposition of the Philippine bill, may interfere with taking up the report.

The adoption of the conference report by the house would complete the administration's anti-trust program for this session.

As laid before the house the Clayton bill forbids price discriminations, limits interlocking directorates and prohibits holding companies where the effect is to "destroy or substantially lessen competition." It also extends labor and farmers' unions from the operations of the Sherman law, revises the law regulating contempt of court and the use of injunctions in labor disputes.

POLICE CENSORS TO LOOK IN ON PLAY "TODAY"

Following several complaints he has received, Chief of Police Brumby has requested Officer Ed Arthur and W. L. Percy, library censor of motion pictures, to attend the performance of "Today" at the Atlanta theater Tuesday afternoon to decide whether it is a fitting and proper play to appear in Atlanta.

Mr. Percy, who saw the play Monday night, stated that if Officer Arthur was of the same opinion as he, nothing would be done about "Today."

Loss of Ground Monday No Serious Setback to Allies

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Oct. 5.—The official announcement of the French and British successes of the French and British in the great action on the left wing of the battle front in northern France has been a tremendous blow to the German line. The loss of the Oise has appeared for the first time in a war office statement. The front in northern France has been pushed back in the region of Roye between the Somme and the Oise. There is much speculation on the phase of the battle in that vicinity, which may have a greatly varied importance. Military critics refuse to attach importance to the setback or the yielding of territory. Lieutenant Colonel Rousset, of the Petit Parisien, cites the fact that Napoleon Bonaparte at Marengo had retreated three times in the face of the Austrians, which did not prevent him from finding there one of his most brilliant victories. The family of the French with the territory is frequently of considerable importance to them. The marshes of the Saint Gond near the Petit Morin river marshes here had made preparations for a heavy rain made the swamp a laze and turned the position to the disadvantage of the German. The French merely stuck to their positions and while the ground annihilated large numbers with their artillery fire. A force of thirty architects and engineers and 3,000 workers is ready to repair the damage in the war. The Institute of France, all association of the members of the French academies of art, science and letters, yesterday to consider excluding German associates and correspondents. The question was not decided.

German Papers Now Admit Situation Is Very Serious

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—The correspondence of the Daily News at Copenhagen telegraphs the following:
"The accounts of the fighting appear in German newspapers and papers admit the situation is desperate."
"The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, describing frontier fighting in the Voge region, says: 'Officers and men have been fighting day and night for thirty-seven days and the Germans are rendering superhuman services, chiefly in water-filled trenches.'"

"The situation is said to be almost unendurable. No German troops have been able to retire from the fighting for rest. The army chaplains accompany the troops right to the front and are holding religious services and preaching sermons in the trenches. Had weather been less favorable, the weather is causing much sickness."

Hungarian County Site Is Captured by Russians

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—Speaking of the Russian invasion of Hungary, a dispatch from Rome to the Exchange Telegraph agency says:
"According to Budapest advice, the capture of Marmaros, capital of the Hungarian county of Marmaros, has resulted in the removal of the government of that department to Huzar, twenty-eight miles west northwest of Sziget."

A second Russian army now threatens the latter city and reinforcements are being hurried up to check the Russian advance. Marmaros, the county in Hungary which the Russians have invaded through the Carpathian Passes, is in the northeast, bordering on Galicia, Bukovina and Transylvania.

Attempted German Raids In East Africa Are Repulsed

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The British embassy today made public this statement: "The British government has received information that German raiding parties have been repulsed in the East African protectorate."

"During September there was considerable activity along the German boundary of East African protectorate in attempts to raid British territory and cut the Uganda railway. All these attempts have been repulsed and the military situation."

Tassoni Quits Cabinet To Command Italian Army

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—A Rome dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph agency gives another reason for the resignation of General Tassoni, under secretary of state for war. It says he will command an army corps.

General Tassoni's resignation was due to a disagreement with the war minister. The Russian government, it is related, has undertaken to find capital for the Chinese government for construction of a railroad from Harbin to Blagoveshensk with a branch to Tselinkhar in Manchuria.

German Gunboat Jaguar Damaged at Tsing-Tau

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—A communication from a German source in Tsing-Tau, the fortified position in the Kiaochow territory, says that a German gunboat, the Jaguar, was damaged by the Japanese on Friday night. The gunboat lost one man killed and three wounded, while twenty-two Germans are missing.

The British battleship, Triumph, according to this report, has participated in the bombardment of Tsing-Tau. A German torpedo boat which was recently engaged with the Japanese has been damaged by the harbor.

Information has been obtained from a reliable source that last night the German authorities ordered the destruction of all wireless bridges and stations still under their control along the line running east and west through the Blue Zone province. The Germans endeavored further to transfer all rolling stock of this line to the Tien-Tsin-Pukow road. The Chinese board of communications is ordered instructions to prevent this.

Allies Raid German Lines of Communication; Destroy Train

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—That the allies, for the moment, possess greater mobility than their foes seems indicated by the news that they have raided the German lines of communication, cut a railroad and destroyed a train belonging to the artillery of the German imperial guard. This is a hint borrowed from the Russians, whose tanking machine appear to have contributed greatly to the reported German undoing in the eastern war area.

As the enormous wastage in horses progresses, it is claimed for the allies that their possibilities for such movements will increase, while those of their opponents decrease. The German cavalrymen on bicycles already are a common sight and the country favored neutrality.

Portugal's Course in War Not to Affect Spain
WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Portugal's course in regard to the war will in no way affect Spanish neutrality, according to a statement made today at the Spanish embassy here. A popular canvasser made throughout Spain by one of the leading newspapers, it was said here, had shown itself practically the entire country favored neutrality.

MISSING SUBMARINE
TURNS UP AT CORSICA
Boat Built in Italy for Russia Disappeared on Its Trial Trip
(By Associated Press.)
ROME, Oct. 6.—(Via London).—The Italian built submarine which disappeared while undergoing a trial trip in the Gulf of Spezia, arrived today at Bastia, a fortified seaport town of France in Corsica.

The submarine, which had just been completed in a private yard near Spezia for the Russian government, was under command of Lieutenant Angel, Belini, retired, who was reported to have expressed dissatisfaction over Italy's neutral attitude.

GERMANS DENY THEY DESTROYED PROPERTY
LONDON, Oct. 6.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent says that telegrams received from Berlin deny the reported destruction by German troops of the property of M. Polnace, president of France, at Ribecourt. They declare this property was the center of a heavy battle near Verdun and that it was bombarded by French artillery.

Mexican Raiders Driven Away from Esperanza

TWO MASKED BANDITS ROB OKLAHOMA BANK
Hold Up President and Cashier and Get Away With $2,437
(By Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 6.—Two masked robbers entered the Farmers and Merchants' National bank at Tulsa today and held up the president of the institution and the cashier. After taking $2,437 in cash, the bandits escaped on horses.

This is the second bank robbery within a week in this vicinity. The bank at Kiefer, Okla., was robbed a few days ago.

Harvest Week--And Women Are Gathering Smart Apparel and Beautiful Fabrics for Their Fall Wardrobes

The Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. store is a great, broad field of Merchandise wherein may be found the choicest fruits of the season.

Through painstaking interest and constant watchfulness, no "weeds" have been allowed to grow, but stocks of right merchandise have come into full, rich development.

And now women are gathering the ripened fruit.

Two Hundred Suits Priced From $25 to $45 Arrived Yesterday

Not that it is such a wonderful feat to receive two hundred suits in a day—but it is a feat, and one that few stores could boast, to receive two hundred of such styles and fabrics as these, to sell at $25 to $45.

What are they, you ask?

You should know, but there are some things we know better when we see, than when we read of them.

To tell of them is not picturing them; we can only record that they are of broadcloth, or gabardine, of serge, of cheviot; that the colors are blues, browns, grays, greens and black; that coats are in varying lengths from short to long; that styles are new; that the tailoring is superb—but how far short that falls of what a woman's eyes will see!

They are splendid, likable styles!

The Serge Dress, As Shown Here Is a Thing of Beauty

Smart, trim, and so very new in line. What the more skillful makers have done this season in developing the serge dress is remarkable.

And we have gathered splendidly!

One dress after another that has some point about it a woman will like—it may be the way the overskirt flares, or that the girle is placed low over the hips; it may be the basque effect and the close fitting sleeves; it may be the use of satin with serge.

The serge dress at Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.'s is a charming style—and it is priced moderately—from $8.75 slowly to $37.50.

The Dress Goods Favored This Fall

When broadcloths are supposed to be very scarce, we can announce a great, fine display of them. That is because we had placed orders before it became so very difficult to get importations through. Incidentally the same reason makes our prices on a parity with seasons when conditions were normal.

A satin-faced broadcloth, 52 inches wide, of beautiful sheen, in black and steel colors, at $17.60.

Light-weight broadcloths, soft, luxurious, 54 inches wide, in purple, Russian green, olive, wistaria, duck wing blue, navy, French blue, brown, taupe and black. $2.00 and $2.25.

Chiffon broadcloth that feels much like satin, 54 inches wide, navy, French blue, purple, wistaria, brown, taupe, sand, olive, myrtle, wine and black; $3.00.

"Kitten ear" cloth, as soft as the name implies, for the most luxurious suits and coats, 54 inches wide, black and navy. $4.00 and $5.50.

Epingle, that sheds dust and wears so well, 42 and 50-inch widths, in navy, French blue, purple, Russian green, olive, taupe, gray, wine, tan, brown and black. $1.00 and $1.50.

The world of French and storm serges in all the old, and certain newly favored shades, 36 to 54 inches wide, 59c to $3.00.

A new imported satin-faced serge, 54 inches wide, fine for tailored suits; comes in purple, navy, brown, leather, taupe, dark wine and black, $3.00.

Plaids and Roman striped wools, 36 to 50 inches wide, rich colorings. 59c to $2.50.

An imported gabardine, has a wonderfully soft texture; it is 50 inches wide, in navy, Copenhagen and black. $1.75.

42-inch Wide Silk Chiffon Dress Velvet at $3.75

A remarkable value; 42-inch, all-silk chiffon dress velvet $3.75 a yard, and this in a season when velvets are very hard to get. The weight is superb for dresses; it comes in about all the good shades—olive, prune, navy, pigeon wing, old rose, taupe, brown and black.

They Are New

Inexpensive Corsets of Tinted Materials

Very new, very much in favor, very remarkable values. We had until this season been unable to get these tinted materials for corsets at low prices. This is one of the better things we have done:

Of Contil at $2.00, $3.50 and $5.00

Of Brochet at $3.50, $5.00, $6.00, $6.50

Pinks, on a delicate flesh color, but the corsets themselves, they are splendid models. Having these in several makes we have models for all figures, with the slightly raised back, the suspicion of a curve in the back and over the hips, the long skirt. Some are heavily boned, others very lightly boned.

Brassieres Priced

Of elony lace, regularly $2 at 88c.

Of batiste, regular $1 and $1.50, slightly soiled, fastening in the back, 39c.

A Harvest Week Special
Our $8.50 Cotton Mattress $6.80

It is a fully forty-five-pound mattress of felted cotton, pure, sanitary. It is warranted never to lump, so perfectly felted it is.

You may see it on the first floor of the furniture store, in the several stages of the making. The big, heavy layers of cotton, the half-made mattress (one end in the ticking, the other still loose), then the finished mattress.

Choose from five patterns of ticking. Made to order, to fit any size bed, $6.80 instead of $8.50.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

By Thornton W. Burgess

What's the harm of gossiping upon a pleasant day?

It's nothing but a mean way to know, to pass the time away.

It all depends. Yes, sir; it all depends.

If you gossip about pleasant things there is no harm. But if—well you gossip about other people and their affairs you may get somebody into a great deal of trouble. Now, Jenny Wren is a great gossip. Everybody knows that. Her tongue is going from morning to night. For the most part it is harmless gossip, but not always. She didn't mean it to be harmless this morning as she settled herself in the old apple tree nearest the stone wall on the edge of the Old Orchard and at once began to gossip with Chatterer the Red Squirrel. No, sir, Jenny Wren didn't mean it to be harmless. The fact is she had deliberately set out to make trouble for Bully the English Sparrow.

"Good morning, Chatterer," exclaimed Jenny. "I hope you are feeling as well as you look."

"I should put it the other way," grunted Chatterer, who happened to be in the best of spirits that morning. "I hope I look as well as I feel, because in that case you must look very fine indeed."

"You do," declared Jenny. "You never have looked better in your life. I believe you are actually growing younger."

Chatterer pretended not to notice this flattery, but Jenny's sharp eyes saw that he was tickled and he went on:

"That red coat of yours is one of the handsomest coats I know of. I always did think you didn't know how to choose your colors. You don't know how envious we folks who have to dress so plainly get sometimes. Speaking of plain dresses, have you noticed that the contacts who have come out from the city to live here in the Old Orchard? I mean Bully the English Sparrow and his wife. Goodness knows, my dress is plain enough, but I do try to keep it in order. But Mrs. Bully doesn't. She doesn't seem to care a crooked stick how she looks. She and her husband are a disgrace to the neighborhood."

"I've noticed that they seem very nice," and I judge by some of the sounds I have heard that they are not altogether easy to get along with," replied Chatterer.

"Easy to get along with?" Jenny Wren fairly danced as she snatched this up. "Easy to get along with? Why, we don't pretend to get along with them. We just don't have anything to do with them! They are beneath our notice!" Jenny held her head very high when she said this.

Chatterer chuckled. "I notice that they stay just the same, and so far as I can make out, they seem very much at home," said he.

"Yes," sputtered Jenny, "they are at home all right, suppose you know where they are going?"

"No," replied Chatterer. "I can't say that I do."

"You don't say?" exclaimed Jenny. "Well, they are living in that old house that Drummer the Woodpecker built two years ago and in which Skimmer the Seawallow started housekeeping this spring."

"What has become of Skimmer?" inquired Chatterer.

"Oh, they drove him out and took the house away from him. It was the most outrageous thing! That's just what it is—outrageous!" Now Jenny was in a neat tree herself, and I heard Mrs. Bully say this very morning that they've got six eggs! Think of that! I've no business to say such a thing, but I can't help wishing that something would happen to those eggs. Well, I must be hurrying home. Don't, for goodness sake, repeat what I've said."

"With all this bustle Jenny Wren, leaving Chatterer in a brown study."

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS FOR OBSERVANCE OF COTTON WEEK

Have you bought that cotton dress yet? Have you stocked up those linen and wash cloths with cotton goods? This is cotton goods week in all parts of the country.

Do you know that the Sherman house and the Fort Hancock, two of Chicago's largest stores, use cotton tablecloths, napkins and towels exclusively and they come all from the cotton fields? The fact that the "feel" of linen is there.

So why not cotton tablecloths for Mrs. Atlanta Housewife? Southern women lead in Monday's observance of the appeal of Mrs. Percy V. Penney, president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, to all patriotic women to buy cotton goods this week.

The Penney has hit the nail on the head. If the women of the south are to prosper and buy cotton goods, they should, they can guarantee the south's prosperity and accordingly their own.

Do the women know their duty? Do they know that practically everything they need can be had in cotton fabric, just as good as more costly materials?

It is a fact that there is nothing more comfortable than cotton fabric. Cotton goods are made in all climates and are as warm as woolen goods in the winter.

There is nothing daintier or prettier than a white cotton dress or a white cotton blouse. Cotton fabric is made in all colors and can be worn for street dresses.

Cotton hose, especially the fine ones, are made in all colors and are quite as soft as silk, wear much longer and are much more comfortable than any other material.

Cotton union suits come in all sizes and are as comfortable as any ever yet made. If you must have a petticoat, that is made of double thickness of cotton.

Club Women Endorse "Buy-a-Bale" Movement
Mrs. J. L. Fitzpatrick, state president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, has been the first woman to sign the organized effort of women wanting to buy cotton goods.

In line with her suggestion, numerous clubs over the state have joined the "buy-a-bale" movement of the Atlanta Journal.

The miniature cotton exposition to be held in Albany the latter part of October will still further promote the interest of the united women of the south.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick Urges Wearing of Cotton Goods
Extracts from a letter received from Mrs. Fitzpatrick follow:

"At most enthusiastic meeting of Albany men and women, and among the many and city council, was perfected for holding the miniature cotton exposition."

The large chautauqua auditorium seating capacity of 7,000 was used upon the state have joined this occasion, the mayor stating that everything would be done for the comfort and entertaining the women.

The display of the various uses of cotton goods will go far to convince the women with the importance of buying cotton for various uses of apparel and for use in the home.

President of City Federation Gives Views on Cotton Goods
Mrs. James Lumpkin, the able president of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, in an interesting interview Tuesday morning gave her views on the cotton goods movement.

"Cotton being the mainstay of the day and hour," said Mrs. Lumpkin, "the attention of all thinking and public-spirited women of the day should be directed to the most practical way of using the present emergency."

The splendid way in which patriotic southern women have always met on occasions has become a matter of history, and it is not to be thought of as an instant thing. It will fall in purpose now when the time so badly needs their assistance."

"The meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Albany, Georgia, to be held in the month of November, will be a most successful one, and will be a most successful one."

"The plan as outlined for the Albany meeting is to fit up three rooms, one as a utility room in which the specimens of work done by Georgia clubs will be exhibited and the by-products of cotton will be sold."

"The other two rooms are to be given to the possibility of beauty in the home from using Georgia cotton articles, the furniture and other things to be the product of home skill."

"Of all the many practical achievements of our state this promises to be the most widespread and lasting benefit, by encouraging home industry and the beauty of our surroundings. All of which will bring about the uplift of our state and help to keep it."

Mrs. Black Tells Uses of Cotton at Federation Meeting
A most interesting feature of the annual meeting of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Albany the latter part of October, said Mrs. Nellie Peters, president of the Federation, was the presentation of the cotton goods movement.

"The presentation of the cotton goods movement," said Mrs. Peters, "will be the most practical way of using the present emergency."

LAST CHANCES FOR WAR MAPS
Act Quickly, for the Supply is Low and No More Can Be Had

As previously announced the supply of war maps is running low and unless you get yours within a few days you may be among the disappointed ones that did not take advantage of this opportunity.

You cannot keep in touch with the progress of the war unless you have a map showing the entire area of the warring nations. There are many points of interest that will be overlooked unless you have one of the latest maps.

Take, for instance, the Kiel canal. It has larger locks than the Suez canal and is more than 60 miles long, running from the Baltic to the Elbe river. It was recently reconstructed for military purposes so that it now accommodates the largest war ships and is strongly fortified throughout its entire length.

You should lose no time in getting the coupon which appears daily on other pages and presenting it with the small expense fee which merely covers the cost of promotion. There are only enough of these maps left to last a few days, so get yours quickly.
